Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow

You can be tomorrow

Dedication

We, the class of 1975, dedicate our yearbook to the Future. In that future, we hope that each individual will attain his tomorrow without undue stress, that each individual will become more than the mere reflection of a man, and that each individual will, first and foremost, find "the need to be."

Tomorrow is forever

Today is yesterday's tomorrow

Happy Retirement

M. Louise Gauntner

May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face, and the rains fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

an old Irish verse

Reposez En Paix

Joseph W. Sandy

"The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want . . .
Surely goodness and mercy
Shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Psalms 23:1 and 6

Different . . .

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

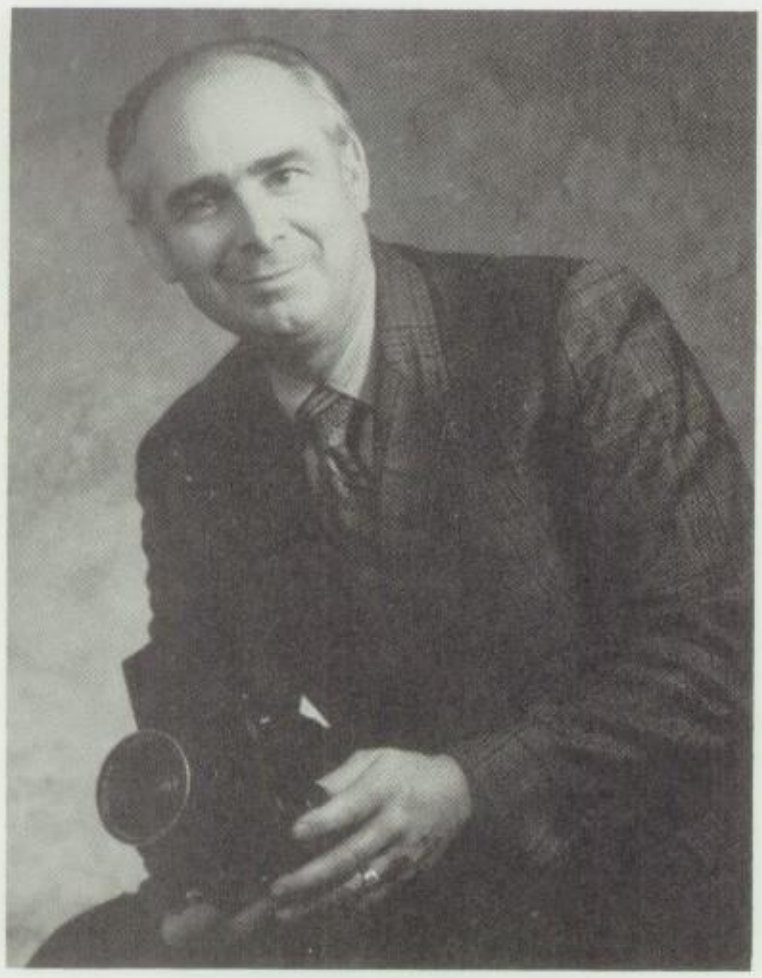
Though the year is over, the books are closed, and the students gone, the memories remain . . .



A note of thanks

The Senior Class and, in particular, the yearbook Staff wish to thank "Bill" King of Henry's Studio for the generous contributions of his talents, his time, his equipment, and his supplies. Without "Bill," our yearbook would be a blank page, rather than a record of time.
